In Memoriam

To Pahquioque, the unknown brave,
   About whose name some critics rave,
We dedicate this fond endeavor
   And hope it lives in jest forever.
We thought they'd buried all of you
   And left no part to lie askew,
To our misfortune we have found
   You've left your name to which we're bound.
Ah! revered name of Pahquioque
   In dear dead days once did evoke
Thoughts of a warrior with piercing eye
   Gazing inscrutably toward the sky.
Now we have made you on the whole
   As a lampoon, both dry and droll.
We trust we haven't disturbed your peace
   That your affection shall not cease
Perhaps you enjoy a laugh or two
   Just as the Class of '60 do!

Of Democracy I sing, and education
Which is to bring . . . Utopia.
Of all men equal, I am afraid.
To cobblers spouting Shakespeare
Let me be no more made
To listen. Of minds which glisten
With the same facts of peaceful pacts
Let me be afraid. And The Method
Let it be, as the horse was shod,
With a hammer and no "permissiveness,"
Lest the smith lose his manliness
With one good kick.

BERNARD WINANS
Student Teaching
"You got problems, Cousin?"

"Now, according to the quantum theory . . ."

"If you had listened to me in the first place . . ."
"What do you mean, you hate spinach?"

"Ain't that sweet!"

"So look, already!"
"Hang in there, Sonny!"

"Help!"

"Do you know any more good jokes?"

"Simple, isn't it?"

"So, play!"
"You say you like Goober peas?"

"You didn't think I'd catch you, huh?"

"Meanwhile, back at the books . . . "

"No, this isn't Dave's Old Six!"
"Somethin's gotta give."

"And, the band, under the direction of . . . "

"It must be in there somewhere!"
"Ahem, Ahem, I say unto thee!"

"Come on, lad! Get with it!"

"All right, Kookies!"
Faculty Informals
"Sure, I'll go to the Fireman's Ball!"

"If it hasn't got it here, it hasn't got it!"

"It just ain't got no bubbles in it!"
"What looks good in the fifth at Jamaica?"

"I guess I'll have to dream the rest!"

"Crazy, man. Crazy!"
"Eeny, Meeny, Miney, Moo!"

"All right, rope. Start climbing!"

"Next to machines, we like people best."
"Give us a job in the follies!!"

"Hacker!!"

"Look at me, daddy!!"

"And it's gonna stay there, too."

"Someone, say something please."
Classes
This group comprises the student Steering Committee for the Freshman Class.
"Mom just sends pictures! Can't she write?"

"I'm not hungry, but, here goes!"

"Hope that brace is strong enough!"

Man, you're covering my territory.
"Pow! Right in the kiss!"

"She's just another one of the girls."

"Ain't love grand!"

"Wipe that smile off your face."

"When are you going to use Colgate with Gardol?"
"Tender Trap"

Junior Production — 1959
Janet Summa, Loretta Bagely, Jeanette Mariani, Edward Watson, Richard O'Sullivan, Vincent Talarico.
"What, Me worry?"

"Here, Atlas, it's all yours."

"Music majors, unite!"

"Isn't that a stunning likeness?"

"More joy juice, Saphire!"
"Now open wide and say aaaaaaaah."

"I wonder if they do these things at Greeley?"
Organizations
The Student Government Association acts as the governing body in all student affairs. The Council also draws up the S.G.A. Budget through which all extracurricular activities operate.

The aims of this association are to develop student initiative and responsibility, to promote student activities and to promote the general welfare of the school.

Officers elected for 1959-1960 are: Louis Del Croce, Dante Zacavish, Eleanor Leheny, Jill Albert, Irene Murphy and Paul Lane.
Interfaith Fellowship

Interfaith Fellowship, new to our campus this year, is designed to help college students seek a better understanding of God through study, fellowship, and action.

In the past the Fellowship has given panel discussions on such topics as, "What is Faith" and "Sharing Our Faith."
The purpose of the Connecticut Intercollegiate Student Legislature is twofold: to stimulate among college students a further interest in government and to offer the experience necessary for a practical understanding of the political activities of the General Assembly concerning state affairs.

Seventeen universities and colleges in Connecticut belong to this organization.
One of our newest organizations is the Aquinas Club, established for all Roman Catholic students on campus. The purpose of this club is to provide for spiritual as well as intellectual growth of the members. Miss Green and the Reverend Martin Hitchcock are the club advisors.
The Dramatic Club is open to all students interested in dramatics. Activities include the reading of plays, as well as the production of plays. Costuming, directing, and make-up are other fields of interest. Trips to New York to see Broadway plays are planned during the year.
"Wait till I change glasses, Ron."

"Not really my best backstage pose."

"Oh dear, did you hurt your knuckles?"

"Yes, Father."

"Somebody, do something!"
The Echo is the weekly campus newspaper, written, edited, and published by an all-student staff. The Echo editor is Bernard Winans, and he is assisted by Joe Sabol, Bette Jo Musgrove, Rose Paonessa, Paul Lane, and Bob Vecchiarelli.
The Science Club is an organization of students whose goal it is to extend their knowledge and increase their understanding of science.

Each year the members of the Club participate in the Eastern Colleges Science Conference. At the meeting there is opportunity for outstanding projects to be displayed and demonstrated.
The Men's Athletic Association is responsible for scheduling and supervising the men's sports program at D.S.C. Aided by Mr. William Williams, the faculty advisor, the officers, class representatives, and interested members meet once a week to plan a program of sports and other activities.
The Pahquiøque is the college yearbook which is published at the end of each year. It is an all-college publication which aims to represent Danbury State College faculty, students and their activities.

Katherine Santuro, Margaret Kennedy, Dorothy Mezochow, Joan Hanson, Claudia Semonetz, Jeanette Mariani, Eugene MacNamara.
In Berkshire Hall, where ideas flow,
Down in the basement, down below,
Works the Yearbook Staff, you know,
Scarce heard beneath these hallowed walls.

Let us go, then, arm in arm,
To the dungeon . . . no alarm!
We shall work!
How did we plan this work?
Hal! No plan . . . just fragments
Of the imagination!
And where the English staff come and go
Speaking of Dedalus and Thoreau-
There shall we endeavor . . .
Coffee, anyone? Who brought the smokes?
A snapshot? Too late . . . we've
Made this page.
Oh, well! What do you expect?
Let's be off.
April is the coolest month . . .
May brings the Yearbook?

What do you mean, you don't dig "Tilly?"
The Student Education Association of Connecticut is a professional organization for college students preparing for teaching. Its purposes are to furnish the student teacher with a preview of the problems he will face in the future, and provide experience in working cooperatively with others like himself on professional and community problems.
The Education Convention Association incorporates Eastern States, Swampscott and other educational organizations into one group. The purpose of E.C.A. is to represent Danbury State College at student education conferences; to inform the entire student body of current education problems discussed at these conferences and thereby to prepare students for professional interest and leadership.

The faculty advisor is Mr. Edwin Rosenberg.
Kappa Delta Pi

Kappa Delta Pi, a national society in education, was established to encourage high professional, intellectual and personal standards, in the teaching profession. Epsilon XI, the Danbury chapter of the society was founded in 1943.

The faculty advisor is Miss Margaret Ankeney.
The members of the Assembly Committee are:

GEORGE FOURNIER
SANDRA MAROIS
GLADYS DOLAN

The Fairfield Dormitory officers of 1959 and 1960 are:

SHIRLEY TANNER
President

MYRA WILLENBROCK
Vice President

The College Orchestra is open to the entire student body and throughout the year covers a large repertoire of concert music. Concerts are usually presented in the Fall and Spring.

The orchestra is under the direction of Dr. Mervin W. Whitcomb.

College Orchestra
The College Band is open to all students. It offers its participants a chance to appreciate and perform all types of concert band literature. Two concerts are usually presented each year, one in the Fall and the other in the Spring.

The band is under the direction of Dr. Mervin W. Whitcomb.
The chorus is open to all college students who are interested in continuing their musical growth. A Christmas and a Spring Concert are presented each year.

Women's Chorus

The Women's Chorus is an organization which consists of college women interested in singing. It provides musical experiences for all participants and entertainment at many social functions throughout the school year.

The Women's Chorus is under the direction of Marjorie Sherman.
M.E.N.C. is an organization open to all Music Education students. Meetings, discussions, and demonstrations provide the students with an opportunity to develop a practical and realistic concept of the music education profession. The members attend the regional convention biennially.

The faculty advisor is Dr. Richard C. Ritscher.
The athletic program available to the women at Danbury State College is planned and directed by the Women's Athletic Association, under the sponsorship of Dr. Alice I. Donnelly. This association, consisting of elected officers, class representatives and sportsheads takes complete charge of all women's sports activities at the college.

The various activities promoted by this organization include: Field Hockey, Archery, Golf, Tennis, Basketball, Volleyball, Badminton, Overnight Camping Trips, Bowling, Swimming, Tumbling and Apparatus, and Softball on both an Intramural and Intercollegiate basis. In addition a Pep Club with a squad of Cheerleaders is also sponsored by W.A.A.

Must I be an acrobat to be a teacher?
After all, one needn't be a wolf to be a lecher.
What do I accomplish doing somersaults?
Isn't it enough to look for those faults
In language arts, arithmetic and diction,
Rather than in badminton and tennis friction?
Volleyball, wrestling, twinkletoes I don't perceive.
It's one big world of make believe.
The Hundred Great Books in all their romance
Have been forsaken for tumbling and dance.
Why, rather, do I continue doing handstands
And playing soccer to empty grandstands?
I much prefer this Ezra Pound,
Than to be made captain of raucous sound
Dull thumping volleyballs
Basketballs
Pingpong balls
Soccer balls
Baseballs, of balls, balls, balls, balls,
Balls, balls, balls.

Alma Mater

To thee Alma Mater, we pledge fidelity,
Among your possessions, our hearts shall ever be.
Give voice to our chorus, spread praise throughout the land,
That we are all brothers, let everyone understand.
As years come between us, our sons shall hear this cry,
Though death take the singer, our song shall never die.
Give voice to our chorus, spread praise throughout the land.
That we are all brothers, let everyone understand.
