It's A Good Feeling I Get When I Look At WestConn!
Remembering Games, People, Laughs, Feelings...
All that you touch . . .
ALL THAT YOU TASTE
All That You Feel
All that you HATE
ALL THAT YOU DISTRUST
ALL THAT YOU SAVE
all that you GIVE
ALL THAT YOU BUY, BEG, BORROW, OR STEAL
ALL YOU CREATE
ALL THAT YOU DO
All That You Say
ALL THAT YOU EAT
everyone you meet everyone

All that is now . . .

All that is gone
All that is now . . .

All that is gone
All That's To Come

Is WestConn your Moon... or is it your Sun?
GOVERNOR GRASSO VISITS WESTCONN

NIMOY AT WESTCONN
The 1976 elections in the Danbury area were highlighted for the WestConn community by the entry of state college trustee Jim Dyer into the 110th State Assembly District race. Dyer attracted a large turnout of college volunteers — something that no other post-Watergate politician was able to do — and he swept to victory on election day running ahead of Senator Lowell Wieker and Congressman Ron Sarasin, and even Jimmy Carter.

Dyer's coalition of college volunteers and elderly residents proved to be a formidable mixture for his Republican opponent, and on election night state representative-elect Jimmy Dyer had much praise for his "Kiddy Corp" of WestConn students. "Anything that I am, and anything that I'm going to be started at WestConn," said Dyer, "and I am very grateful for the tremendous help that I received from so many friends."
WestConn Elects A Representative
In case you missed the mid-sixties and early seventies WestConn staged a re-run of those spirited protest days. “Ban the Bomb,” “Stop the War,” and other famous protest slogans were seen marching around the campus, however, just as in the real protest days, most WestConn students remained apathetic.

The Board of Trustees have chosen Varga to become a New Trustee to the campus. Varga is the current president of the SGA at Newbury Hall. He has been working at the residence hall for two years.

The campaign included a lot of work and people helping out. Varga said, "I think it's a great job and I also gave a lot of credit to the people who live in this residence. They did a lot of good things and helped us a lot."
