NEWS OF THE WEEK ON THE EVENING NEWS

ST.

NEW RECTOR OF ST. JAMES.

An Old Danbury Fair.

The New-George W. Daversont the rector of St. James, arrived in Danbury Saturday morning.

L. T. Smith, of Robinson Avenue, Danbury, held the rectoral office of St. James and took his new parsonage on the East Side.

Mr. Daversont, who is one of the youngest rectors ever called to St. James, was born in 1845, in the year of the great fire of Boston.

He was educated at St. Paul's School, and graduated from Harvard College in 1866.

Rector's Day was celebrated with great enthusiasm.

City Happenings.

Emily F. Huyler, of Danbury, has been appointed as the new treasurer of the Danbury Fair, which is being held this week.

The sixty thousand dollars raised by the Danbury Fair of 1902 will be used for the establish-ment of a new library in the city.

The remarkable weather of the past week has brought an increase in业务.

The Danbury Fair of 1902 will be held on May 4th.

GREETED OLD COMMANDER.

Survivors of the C.S.S. Monitor were present.

Captain G. M. Smith, of Middlebury, who was present at the surrender of the Monitor, was among the survivors.

CLANCY AND KIND LIBERATED.

The owners of the Y. M. C. A. are pleased to announce the release of John Clancy and George King, of Danbury, who were arrested in New York City.

The Y. M. C. A. has been working for the release of these men for several weeks.

THE F. STARR SANDFORD PLACE.

Purchased by Mr. D. B. Buck, of New York City.

The house, which is located on the corner of Main and School streets, was purchased by Mr. D. B. Buck, of New York City.

The house, which was erected about 1850, has been restored and is one of the finest structures in the city.

Mr. D. B. Buck has spent the winter months in New York City, where he has been engaged in business.

Mr. D. B. Buck plans to open a new restaurant in the spring.

ENLARGE FAIR BUILDINGS.

The owners of the Danbury Fair, who are planning to enlarge the fair buildings, have received a number of offers from local business men.

It is probable that important changes will be made in the fair buildings.

The grounds of last year proved to be insufficient for the number of visitors.

The new buildings will probably be completed by March 1st.

The new buildings will provide additional space for the exhibits and improve the facilities for the visitors.
