EVEN IN MARCH THE DANBURY NEWS Wednesdays, March 30, 1927

ENGINEER IN CHARGE OF ROCKY RIVER PROJECT DESCRIBES WORK TO ROTARY CLUB.

Michael McNamaras and Michael Pahara, both of this city, arrested early last evening by Patrolman William H. Mullan and Charles Tully on a charge of intoxication and breach of peace, were each fined $19 and costs by Judge John R. Callahan, who is president of the Bar Association. The decision and the fine were made known this morning by Judge Charles A. Hallock.

HUGGE SALE PENDING.

One hundred and sixty members of Danbury Lodge of Moose and their guests attended a banquet last night in Moose Temple. The banquet was the first of a series which has been planned for the local lodge. It proved to be one of the most successful and enjoyable events the members of the lodge have ever held.

The gathering was presided over by Malachi J. Kane, past director of the lodge, and one of its most popular members. The banquet was served in the hotel on the second floor, the Hotel Green. A corps of waiters served the courses. At the conclusion of the last course, the toastmaster, Mr. Kane, arose, and after speaking of the success of the evening, the members that others are planning related an interesting memoir of the history of Danbury Lodge.

Mr. Kane’s account of how the members have contributed to the development of the town, and the way they have helped to preserve and improve the city, was a popular feature of the evening. Mr. Kane closed his remarks with a splendid banquet dinner, served in the hotel, and outlined some of the plans for the future of the lodge.

Another interesting feature of the evening was the display of various objects of interest to the members of the lodge. An addition to Mr. Kane’s services, several other officers were present to present the members of the North Norwalk Lodge.

The entertainment, which followed the banquet, was a success. The guests were entertained by the Dixie Boys and a group of entertainers, the Dixie Boys and a group of entertainers, who are on the first vaudeville circuit. They entertained the guests with a program of songs, dances, and music, and the guests seemed to enjoy themselves.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Griffin, of Deer Hill, and Mr. Mrs. Ralph W. Buekley, of Deer Hill, are expected home from Florida, to-night, after a two months’ sojourn at Daytona Beach.

Miss Mary Daniels, of this city, who recently completed a year’s vaudeville tour, is spending a few days at Bridgeport with her friends, Peter Becker, 21 New street, before starting out on another tour.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Mallory, of Parviley avenue, are expected home from their South American cruise, on Friday. They are passengers on the S. S. Lancia, which is scheduled to arrive at New York on April 7th.

FINANCIAL SERVICES

CITIES SERVICE

Use Clarified Dairy Creamer. Fresh every day. The Ladies Aid at the Beaver Brook church will have a rummage sale to-morrow afternoon in the church hall.

LOWE—In Danbury on Monday, March 29, 1927, at 11 years, 11 months, 11 hours, 11 minutes from birth. Funeral will be held at St. John’s Church in Danbury.

HASTINGS—In Danbury on March 27, 1927, at 11 years, 11 months, 11 hours, 11 minutes from birth. Funeral will be held at St. John’s Church in Danbury.