

DANBURY.

"The Gateway to New England."

A county seat of Fairfield county, located in the southwestern section of Connecticut, sixty-five miles from New York city.

Estimated population 27,000.

Healthfully situated, 400 feet above sea level, twenty-five miles from tidewater.

Leading hat manufacturing center of the United States, having nearly fifty factories engaged in the production of hats and allied products, including hatters' materials, machinery, etc.

Other manufactories produce a wide variety of articles, including silks, electrical goods, metal goods, electric light fixtures, insulating materials, general machinery, underwear, electric trucks, ball and roller bearings, paper boxes, cigars, cutlery.

Ideal residential location, surrounded by rolling country, dotted with lakes, in foothills of Berkshire mountains.

Principal trading center of southwestern Connecticut. Shopping and marketing facilities unsurpassed.

Municipally owned public water system consisting of six large reservoirs.

Educational facilities include newly erected high school costing $500,000, state normal school, state Trade school, several grade public schools, two parochial schools, Wooster School for Boys and other institutions.

Excellent rail shipping and passenger facilities. Headquarters of local divisions of New York, New Haven & Hartford railroad and Central New England railroad. Motor bus lines to neighboring cities and towns.

Two national banks and two savings banks.

Fifteen churches of various denominations.

Fully equipped public hospital. Excellent public library. Fairfield County court house. Two theaters. Excellent hotels.

Adequate fire and police protection.

Lake Danbury, which is to be the largest and most beautiful body of fresh water in the state, eleven miles in length, covering an area of more than ten square miles and having a total shore line of 80 miles, is being created by the Connecticut Light & Power Co., in connection with an extensive hydro-electric development, and will approach close to the borders of the city.

New industries and new residents welcomed with cordial community spirit.

City and Vicinity

The Hoyt-Messinger corporation announces that its second sizers are to report for work on Tuesday.

The estate of Catherine H. O'Connor has been closed in the probate court, a final accounting having been filed.

TO SERVE MEN'S DINNER.

St. James' Parish Event Scheduled for October 28.

Announcement has been made that a Men's dinner will be served in the Parish House of St. James' Episcopal church on the evening of October 28. All the men of the parish have been invited to attend. The speaker will be the Rev. Charles McAllister, executive secretary of the diocese of Newark. The dinner will be served by the Rector's Aid society of the church.

The Young Men's Luncheon club of the Parish will meet in the Parish House to-morrow afternoon at 12:15 o'clock. Kenneth Kliner will be in charge.

In the absence of the Rev. A. C. Coburn, rector of the church, from Wednesday of this week until Thursday of next week, all parish calls are to be received by Dr. J. E. Reilly, rector of St. Thomas' church, Bethel. The preacher at St. James' church next Sunday will be the Rev. Joseph Titus.

The first Sunday afternoon services at the church will be held the first Sunday in November, at which time Lee H. Richardson, organist and choirmaster of the church will give a short recital.

The preacher at the morning services on November 6 will be Very Rev. Provost Erskine Hill, dean of the Cathedral in Aberdeen, Scotland. He will celebrate the holy communion on that morning.

There will be a meeting of the vestry in the Parish House this evening.

The week-day sessions of the church will be resumed next week. Grades 5, 6, 7, and 8 will meet on Wednesdays at 4:30 p. m., and the senior department and teacher training class on Wednesdays at 7 p. m.

The Day of Rededication at St. James' church will be observed on the first Sunday in Advent, November 27.

TOWN MEETING TO-NIGHT.

Appropriations Will Be Acted on at Adjourned Session.

The town meeting, adjourned from the election last Monday, will be held in City Hall this evening at eight o'clock.

This is the annual meeting called to take action on the appropriations as recommended by the board of finance: to make provision for working the highways of the town and to authorize the selectmen to borrow money to meet the obligations of the town, in anticipation of taxes.

Among the articles in the call for this evening is one calling for action on the part of the voters as to whether they will appropriate a sum of money to secure state aid in road construction. If the town will appropriate $2,500 a year the state will appropriate money for the same piece of road. Danbury is in the

PERSONAL MENTION

Mr. and Mrs. Harold W. Peffers, of 27 Farview avenue, went to Madison to-day, to spend a week.

Jules A. Belot, of New York city, spent the week-end with his parent, Mr. and Mrs. Julian Belot, 275 White street.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Shelton Davenport, of 20 Farview avenue, passed the week-end at their summer home at Madison.

Miss Constance Brown, of New York city, spent the week-end visiting Miss Virginia Peyton, of Ohehyattah place.

John Renner, of 460 Main street, spent the week-end in Totenville, Staten Island, with his brother, Andrew Renner.

Mrs. C. E. Carter, of 39 Division street, has returned from Madison, Wis., where she was called a few weeks ago on account of the serious illness of her father.

Mrs. Frank Mastrogiro and infant son, Francis, of Meriden, are visiting at the home of Mrs. Mastrogiro's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Michael Cavotti, 39 Elm street.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Gage, of Brooklyn, N. Y., have returned to their home after spending the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Osborne, of 97 Garfield avenue.

Miss Helen MacDonald, of America, N. Y., and Miss Olive Wilcox, of Sharon, have returned home after spending the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. Earl K. Smith, of 59 Lincoln avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Johnson and Miss Mabel J. Johnson, who have been spending several weeks here with relatives, left to-day by automobile for their home in Miami, Fla., where they are to spend the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. Aubry Soper and son, Aubry Jr., of Freeport, L. I., and Mr. and Mrs. Myron K. Blissard, of Brooklyn, N. Y., were week-end guests of Mr. Blissard's mother, Mrs. Lydia Blissard, of 286 Main street.

Miss Mona Hungerford, of London, Eng., former leading woman for John Barrymore in "Redemption," and Enrique Powers, of Buenos Ayres, Argentina, were week-end guests of Mrs. Florence M. Peyton, of Obhehyattah place.

Mrs. George E. Brockway of Brooklyn and Miss Linda Holloway, of East Orange, N. J., formerly of Danbury were visitors at the Fair Saturday. Mrs. Brockway who was formerly Miss Anna Welchert and Miss Holloway were formerly members of the faculty of the Danbury High school.

MANY DANCE AT CLUB.

Mr. and Mrs. Emil Grollmann and son Ronald, of 79 North Street, have returned home after spending the summer at Fairfield Beach.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert M. Brown and children, of Springfield, Mass., were week-end visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jack E. Horan, 19 Orchard street.

Dr. S. Virginia Crawford and Miss Caroline Crawford, of 5 Terrace place, left this morning for a two weeks' motor trip in Pennsylvania and New York states.

Misses Marion Galloway and Rita Rinefrank, of Greenwich, and Philip Beach, of Rye, N. Y., were week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Harold W. Peffers, of 37 Farview avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. William Burns and daughter, Mildred, of Providence, R. I., and Mrs. Lulu Gauscher of Woonsocket, R. I., have returned home after a few days' visit with Mrs. Harry W. Ruffels, of 5 Cherry street.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles L. Catlin and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Catlin, of Osborne street, together with Mr. and Mrs. Charles L. Wanzer, of Hayestown, enjoyed a motor trip to Maine over the week-end.

Mrs. Cora A. Fisher and Miss Harriet Fisher, of Haynes, Ore., are guests of Mrs. Fisher's son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. S. Bernard Romans, of Wooster Heights, where they will spend the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Beckerle, of New York city; Mr. and Mrs. Harry Ross and Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Ross, of Elizabeth, N. J., and E. H. Ackerman, of Flushing, L. I., were week-end guests at the English homestead, Great Plain.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy G. Hawley and children of New Haven spent Saturday and Sunday at the home of Mr. Hawley's parents, Dr. and Mrs. George K. Hawley, 62 Franklin street. Mr. Hawley and his family attended the Fair on Saturday.

Miss Louise Barnes, of Ossining, N. Y., has returned home after spending several days in this city, as the guest of Miss Ruth E. Noland, of 21 James street. Miss Barnes, who is an attorney at law, is associated professionally with her father, Thomas G. Barnes, a leading attorney of Ossining.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry W. Michael, of Teaneck, N. J., motored to Danbury last Thursday where they were the over-night guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Biolet, of 55 Osborne street. On their return home Friday they were accompanied by Mrs. Jennie Kellner and daughter, Miss Grace Kellner, of this city, of this city, who will remain in Teaneck for a week.

and Mrs. Sluti who have the sympathy of their large circle of friends and acquaintances.