

I have seen in many a day," Mr. Sunderland said. "The building is magnificent and elegant, and was erected with richness and taste. It is located in a beautiful surrounding on the lake shore front. I would advise anyone visiting Chicago not to fail to see this building."

Mr. Sunderland concluded by saying that the ideas he gained at the convention in Minneapolis are to be submitted in a report he will make to another local organization.

Ira R. Wildman told of an incident that happened to him while he was attending the recent district Rotary convention in Lenox, Mass., when he was introduced to a woman whose father lived in Danbury. Mr. Wildman sent her some books concerning Danbury, one of them telling of the hat industry, issued by the Mallory Hat Co., and that in return she sent a check for $125, to help provide Thanksgiving dinners for worthy families in Danbury.

Three visitors were introduced at to-day's meeting: Harry E. Stewart, of Glenbrook, by Charles J. Fisher; Arch B. Campbell, of Mt. Vernon, N. Y., Rotary club, by Philip N. Sunderland, and Elbridge Gary, of this city, by Earl H. Payne.

OBITUARY.

Mrs. Joseph H. Barry.

The many friends of Mildred A. Barry, wife of Joseph H. Barry, of this city, will regret to learn of her death which occurred at the home of her mother, Mrs. Mary Voick, in the Still River district of New Milford, shortly after midnight last night.

The death of Mrs. Barry followed an illness of several months with a complication of diseases.

Mrs. Barry was born in Branchville but went to New Milford to reside when a child. With the exception of two years spent in Danbury she made her home in New Milford.

A young woman of a most pleasant and loving disposition Mrs. Barry endeared herself to all who knew her and word of her death will occasion much sadness among her friends and acquaintances.

She was a member of St. Francis' Church, New Milford.

stating that the courts must uphold officers of the law. He commended Officer Lewis for not using his policeman's club in making the arrest and said he believed the officer did not use more force than was necessary in making the arrest.

The resistance charge was based upon the fact whether Zimmerman was intoxicated, in the opinion of the court, and Judge Garlick said he believed the witnesses for the state who testified Zimmerman was under the influence of liquor.

INSPECTING BIG DAM.

Secretary Work at New Milford This Afternoon.

Dr. Hubert Work, secretary of the interior in the cabinet of President Coolidge, who is the guest of Dr. and Mrs. David Chester Brown in this city for a few days, is making a trip of inspection to the huge dam and power plant being constructed for the Connecticut Light & Power Co., near New Milford, this afternoon.

Secretary Work is accompanied by Dr. Brown and Judge J. Moss Ives. The party is being shown about the scene of operations by A. J. Campbell, of Waterbury, superintendent of the Connecticut Light & Power Co.

The dam, which will retain the immense body of water setting back nearly to this city, to be called Lake Danbury, is approaching completion and work upon the power plant and other parts of the project is well advanced.
