Articles of Faith

We believe in God the Father Almighty, maker of heaven and earth: and in Jesus Christ, His only Son, our Lord; who was conceived by the Holy Ghost; born of the Virgin Mary; suffered under Pontius Pilate; was crucified, dead, and buried: The third day He rose from the dead; He ascended into heaven, and sitteth at the right hand of God, the Father Almighty: From thence He shall come to judge the quick and the dead.

We believe in the Holy Ghost; the holy catholic Church; the communion of saints; the forgiveness of sins; the resurrection of the body; and the life everlasting.

At a meeting held February 25, 1915, the church, while expressing its adherence to the substance of the doctrine of the above creed, adopted the following statement of Christian faith as embodying the substance of the things most truly believed by it:

We believe in God, the Father, infinite in wisdom, goodness, and love; and in Jesus Christ, His Son, our Lord and Saviour, who for us and our salvation lived and died and rose again and liveth evermore; and in the Holy Spirit, who taketh of the things of Christ and revealeth them to us, renewing, comforting, and inspiring the souls of men.

We are united in striving to know the will of God as taught in the Holy Scriptures, and in our purpose to walk in the ways of the Lord, made known or to be made known to us.

We hold it to be the mission of the Church of Christ to proclaim the gospel to all mankind, exalting the worship of the one true God, and laboring for the progress of knowledge, the promotion of justice, the triumph of peace, and the realization of human brotherhood.

Depending, as did our fathers, upon the continued guidance of the Holy Spirit to lead us into all truth, we work and pray for the transformation of the world into the kingdom of God; and we look with faith for the triumph of righteousness and the life everlasting.*

* These four paragraphs are what is known as the "Kansas City statement," which was adopted by the National Council of Congregational Churches of the United States at its meeting held at Kansas City, Mo., in October, 1913.

Order of Service for the Reception of Members

The minister, standing at the Lord's Table, shall say,

What shall I render unto the Lord
For all His benefits toward me?
I will take the cup of salvation
And call upon the name of the Lord.
I will pay my vows unto the Lord,
Yea, in the presence of all His people.

The minister shall then read the names of those who are being received by letter from other churches of Christ; and the minister shall say,

Dearly Beloved: Having before made public confession of your faith in Christ, and having been recommended to our fellowship by other churches of our common Lord, in His name we bid you welcome. We greet you as fellow laborers in His service and fellow travelers to His promised rest. We trust that through sympathy with our spirit, and union with us in all Christian service, you will find in this church your spiritual home.

May God enable us all to walk together in harmony and in true holiness; to help one another by word and example in the faithful performance of our duties toward God and toward our fellowmen; and to live as it becometh the Gospel of Christ, adorning the doctrine of God our Saviour in all things.

The Lord bless you and keep you, the Lord make His face to shine upon you and be gracious unto you; the Lord lift up his countenance upon you and give you peace. Amen.

The minister shall then read the names of those who are being received on confession of their faith. These shall present themselves before him; and the minister shall say,

Dearly Beloved: Called of God to be His children through Jesus Christ, our Lord, you are here that in the presence of God and His people you may enter into the communion and service of His church.

Attend, therefore, to the statement of the Christian faith which is received by this church as embodying the substance of the things most truly believed by us, in common with the Church of God throughout the world.

The minister shall here read the following statement of belief:

We believe in God, the Father, infinite in wisdom, goodness, and love; and in Jesus Christ, His Son, our Lord and Saviour, who for us and our salvation lived and died and rose again and liveth evermore; and in the Holy Spirit, who taketh of the things of Christ and revealeth them to us, renewing, comforting, and inspiring the souls of men.

We are united in striving to know the will of God as taught in the Holy Scriptures, and in our purpose to walk in the ways of the Lord, made known or to be made known to us.

We hold it to be the mission of the Church of Christ to proclaim the gospel to all mankind, exalting the worship of the one true God, and laboring for the progress of knowledge, the promotion of justice, the triumph of peace, and the realization of human brotherhood.

Depending, as did our fathers, upon the continued guidance of the Holy Spirit to lead us into all truth, we work and pray for the transformation of the world into the kingdom of God; and we look with faith for the triumph of righteousness and the life everlasting.

The minister shall then say,

Having been instructed in this faith and humbly trusting in the grace of God given unto you, you do now in His sacred presence and publicly before men confess your faith in the Lord Jesus Christ, and avow yourselves to be His disciples forever.

You declare it to be your sincere and solemn purpose to lead a life of devotedness to God, to give up yourselves to His guidance, and to strive after conformity to His holy will. Especially will you study to follow the example and precepts of our blessed Lord; and you will seek by prayer and diligence in duty to secure the aid and sanctifying influences of the Holy Spirit.

As members of this church you promise to conform to its order and discipline, to promote as far as in you lies, its edification and purity, and to walk with your brethren in Christian charity and fidelity.

And you will strive to fulfill all the duties, public and private, incumbent upon you as members of the whole body of Christ, by laboring for the spread of the gospel and the triumph of righteousness throughout the world.

Do you thus believe, profess and engage?

Then shall the sacrament of baptism be administered to such as have not been baptized.

The members of the church shall then rise, and the minister shall say,

We do now solemnly and affectionately receive you to our communion and to a fellowship with us in the blessings and service of the gospel; and in the strength of Christ we do promise to walk with you in all helpfulness, brotherly love and watchfulness, as becometh members of the same household of faith. God grant that loving and being loved, serving and being served, blessing and being blessed we may be prepared, while we dwell together on earth, for the perfect communion of the saints in heaven.

Then shall the people be seated, and the minister shall extend the right hand of fellowship to the new communicants with fitting words of scripture. The service of admission shall then conclude with the following blessing:

Now the God of peace, that brought again from the dead our Lord Jesus, that Great Shepherd of the sheep, through the blood of the everlasting covenant, make you perfect in every good work to do His will, working in you that which is well pleasing in His sight through Jesus Christ, to whom be glory for ever and ever.

The mountains shall depart and the hills be removed, but My kindness shall not depart from you, neither shall the covenant of My peace be removed, saith the Lord that hath mercy on you.

The Lord bless you and keep you; the Lord make His face to shine upon you, and be gracious unto you; the Lord lift up His countenance upon you, and give you peace. Amen.

By-Laws

AS AMENDED MAY 27, 1915

I

NAME

This church shall be known by its corporate name, "The Asylum Hill Congregational Church."

II

ARTICLES OF FAITH AND COVENANT

Its articles of faith and covenant shall be those adopted February 25, 1915.

III

FELLOWSHIP

The church, while using full freedom in the management of its own affairs, will cherish the fellowship of the Congregational churches by taking part in, and calling councils, as need may require, and also through its connection with the local Association, the General Conference of the State, and the National Council.

IV

OFFICERS

Its officers shall be the pastor, a clerk, treasurer, auditor, historian, and six deacons. It shall also have a prudential committee. The clerk, treasurer, deacons and auditor shall be chosen at the annual meeting, all, save the last named, by ballot. Other officers, committees and agents may be appointed, and vacancies filled, as occasion may require. Any officer, except the pastor, may be removed by vote of the church. Official expenses of those appointed to service may be paid by the church.

(1) The Pastor. The pastor shall be moderator ex-officio at all meetings except when the business relates to himself.

(2) The Clerk. The clerk shall make a true record of all business transacted at meetings of the church and of the prudential committee. He shall have the custody of all records and papers, except such as belong to the treasurer, keep a correct register of the members and record all baptisms of adults and infants, with the names of the parents of the latter. He shall issue letters of dismissal and recommendation according to rule, conduct the usual correspondence of the church, make a report at the annual meeting, and, under the direction of the prudential committee, publish yearly an annual report, and every fifth year, beginning in 1915, a manual.

(3) The Treasurer. The treasurer shall receive all stated or occasional charitable collections and offerings and dispose of the same as directed by the donors, the prudential committee or the church. He shall also receive and hold all donations, bequests or other property, real or personal, given or entrusted to the church, and shall invest and dispose of the same as directed by the donors, the prudential committee, or the church. He shall be required to give bonds, in such amount as may be fixed by the prudential committee, and shall report at the annual meeting. In the absence or disability of the treasurer an assistant treasurer may be appointed by the prudential committee.

(4) The Auditor. The auditor shall examine annually, or oftener if necessary, the accounts of the treasurer with the vouchers, and make an annual report.

(5) The Deacons. The deacons shall serve six years, and be chosen in such order that one shall retire each year. No deacon shall be re-elected until one year after the close of his term.

(6) The Historian. Each year the retiring deacon shall be the historian of the year which closes his term of service.

(7) Officers of the Sunday School. The church, at its annual meeting, shall elect the following officers of the Sunday school, on nomination by the school, namely: a superintendent, assistant superintendents, a secretary, treasurer, historian, and such other officers as the school may nominate. The superintendent shall be chosen by ballot.

(8) The Prudential Committee. The prudential committee shall consist of the pastor, assistant pastor, clerk, treasurer, superintendent of the Sunday school, the deacons, and two women chosen by ballot by the church at the annual meeting, all being members of the church. Five shall constitute a quorum. It shall keep careful records of its proceedings and may make recommendations to the church from time to time, as it shall see fit. It shall examine candidates for membership by profession, take cognizance of delinquencies and, when necessary, report them to the church, and pass upon all requests for admission or dismissal by letter. It shall distribute undesignated offerings at its discretion, advise the treasurer and other officers, as need may require, and appoint delegates to councils and other bodies, except as the church may otherwise order.

MEMBERS

(1) Persons desiring to unite with the church by profession will be examined by the prudential committee as to their Christian experience and belief and, if approved by the committee, will be propounded publicly for one week, after which, if no objection be made, they shall be received on their profession of faith and their assent to the covenant of the church.

(2) The credentials of persons desiring to unite with the church by letter or certificate shall be examined and approved by the prudential committee, and thereupon reported to some regularly appointed meeting of the church. If within one week no objection be made, they may be received by vote and enrolled as members of the church. If objection be made it shall be referred to the prudential committee, which shall make investigation and report.

(3) Every member of the church who removes from us is expected to take a letter of dismission. Requests for letters shall be submitted at some regularly appointed meeting of the church and referred to the prudential committee for consideration and report. If such letter is granted, it shall be valid only for six months from date of issue. At the end of that time, if no notification shall have been received of its acceptance by some other church the person will be regarded as a member of this church, as if no letter had been issued.

(4) All members of the church in good standing, who are twenty-one years old or over, are entitled to vote in its meetings.

VI

ORDINANCES

(1) The sacrament of the Lord's Supper shall be administered on the first Sunday in February, April, June, October and December, and at such other times as may be specially appointed.

(2) Persons not baptized in infancy shall be baptized on their profession of faith.

Children may be baptized at such times and places as are mutually convenient for the pastor and parents.

DISCIPLINE

(1) The object in discipline shall be to reclaim the erring and to conserve the order and welfare of the church.

(2) If a member of this church joins another church without first asking a letter of dismission and recommendation, it shall be regarded as a breach of covenant and, by vote, the church shall withdraw watch and care from him and count him as no longer a member.

(3) If a member, not otherwise delinquent, fully separates himself from the church by neglecting the covenant, the church, after suitable efforts to reclaim him, may withdraw watch and care from him and count him as no longer a member.

(4) If members have been long absent, and it is not known where they reside nor whether they are living or dead, or if absent members whose residence is known unreasonably and persistently neglect to ask letters of dismission and recommendation, the church may withdraw watch and care from them and count them as no longer members. If, however, such persons subsequently desire to revive their connection with this church, they may be restored to membership upon the vote of the church.

(5) If members become disciplinable, so that it is necessary to bring their cases before the church, this shall be done, in every instance, by or with the approval of the prudential committee.

(6) In case of private offenses, the rule of our Lord in Matthew 18: 15-17 shall be followed in the spirit of the gospel.

(7) In case of public offenses, such as flagrant immorality, open denial of the articles of faith and persistent violation of the covenant, the prudential committee, without waiting for a personal complaint, and after suitable efforts to reclaim the offender, shall bring the case before the church.

(8) When complaints are brought before the church, the accused, unless absent in parts unknown, shall be furnished seasonably by the clerk with a copy of the charges in all their specifications, and shall be entitled to a full hearing.

(9) When a case is brought before the church, it may, at its discretion, refer the trial to a committee appointed with power and authority to hear and try the case. When the committee has heard the case, it shall report to the church the facts, with its opinion upon them. This report the church shall accept and approve, unless it sees cause to allow a re-examination of the case upon the facts as found by the committee.

(10) At the conclusion of a trial, if the church is convinced that the accused is guilty, he may be admonished publicly, or suspended from fellowship for a definite time, or the church may withdraw watch and care from him, or may excommunicate him.

VIII

BENEVOLENCES

On the second Thursday of November in each year the church shall decide upon a list of benevolent objects to be recommended to the congregation for their contributions during the year beginning on the first day of January following. Notice to this effect shall be given to the congregation in such manner and at such time as the prudential committee shall approve.

IX

MEETINGS

(1) The annual meeting, to hear reports, elect officers and do any other business proper to be done thereat, shall be held on the first Thursday in February of each year, on at least five days' notice given at a regularly appointed meeting of the church.

(2) Special meetings may be called by the pastor, the prudential committee, or the clerk when he is so requested in writing by five voting members of the church, for purposes named in the call, and on at least five days' notice given at a regularly appointed meeting of the church.

(3) Ordinary ecclesiastical business, such as relates to the admission and dismissal of members and the appointment of delegates to other bodies, may be transacted without previous notice, and by common consent, at any regularly appointed religious meeting of the church.

(4) Fifteen voting members shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business.

X

SUSPENSION OF BY-LAWS

In cases of emergency, any of the foregoing by-laws may be suspended by unanimous vote of the voting members present at any duly authorized business meeting of the church.

XI

AMENDMENTS

Amendments to these by-laws, or changes in the articles of faith or the covenant, shall be made only by a two-thirds vote of all the voting members present at an annual meeting, or at any special meeting regularly called for that purpose.

Notice

This church, organized in 1865, and incorporated in 1895 under the public acts of 1893, "providing for the incorporation of Christian churches," has power to take, receive, hold, and convey any and all estate, real or personal, which may be given or bequeathed to it by any person or party, in trust or otherwise, for any charitable, benevolent, educational, ecclesiastical or missionary object or purpose.

The clerk, treasurer and superintendent of the Sunday school are chosen for one year. Deacons are chosen for six years.

Until 1873, the offices of clerk and treasurer were held by the same person.

Important

Changes in Address. Members are earnestly requested, whenever they change their home addresses, to send immediate notice in writing to Dr. Voorhees, at the parsonage, No. 854 Asylum Avenue. Without this co-operation it is exceedingly difficult to keep our address list up to date, and it throws an additional burden upon the Clerk, whose duties now are sufficiently manifold.

All marriages of members should likewise be promptly reported, in order to receive mention in the annual report of the church, issued regularly in March.

Catalogue of Members

Admissions by letter are indicated by an L preceding the name, those by certificate by a c. Admissions on profession have no prefix.

Members living in the suburbs of Hartford are included in the local list. The names of those living at a distance are given in the list of non-residents, on pages 39-43. W. H. means West Hartford.
