Historical Sketch.

The town of Mansfield was originally a part of Windham. It was incorporated as a separate town in May, 1703.

Settlements began here as early as 1697. The first families were principally from Massachusetts. It is said that Plymouth, Lynn, Medfield, Barnstable, Marlborough, and Milford were represented. Other families were from Norwich, Conn.

The inhabitants began as early as A. D., 1700, to look for a "minister to dispense to them the gospel," and liberal provision was made for his encouragement to settle with them. There was an allotment of 1,000 acres of land, and offers of assistance in clearing a farm and aid in "building a ministerial house." In A. D., 1700 a Mr. Smith, whose christian name is not recorded, was invited to become their minister. In 1701 application was made to Mr. Oxenbridge Thacher, a son of Rev. Peter Thacher, of Milford, Mass., "to carry on the work of the Gospel Ministry" among them. Finally in 1706, Mr. Thacher received a formal call to settle, with the offer of £40 a year, and two days work by each man in town. The call was several times renewed with an increase of salary. Mr. Thacher became a resident, and probably officiated as a stated minister until the settlement of the first pastor. In the mean time, Thomas Huntington and Azariah Mather were invited to the work of the ministry. When Mr. Thacher came, the proprietors contracted with a family "to diet" him for 3s. 6d. a week, and his man for a less sum. He died in 1772 at the age of 92 years. Thomas Huntington was one of the original proprietors of the town, and probably he, or a son of the same name was called to the ministry. Azariah Mather was pastor in Old Saybrook from 1710 to 1732, and died in 1737.

The first Congregational Church was organized October 18, O. S. (29 N. S.), 1710, with Rev. Eleazer Williams as pastor. Previous to that time, the ecclesiastical connection of the settlers was with the Church in Windham. The original members entered into covenant by signing a Confession of Faith, which, with the covenant is still preserved, as copied from the records by Rev. Richard Salter. The names of the original members are: Eleazer Williams, Shubael Dimmock, Joseph Hall, William Hall, Samuel Storrs, Thomas Huntington, Benjamin Hall, John Sargent, Samuel Stetson, Isaac Hall.

The town of Mansfield was divided into two incorporated ecclesiastical societies called the North and South societies in 1737. The second Congregational Church was organized in the North Parish, Oct. 11, 1744. The Methodist Church was organized in 1792. The Baptist Church became a regular organization in 1807. The Congregational Church in Chaplin, then a part of Mansfield, was organized in 1810.

In June 1894 the church voted to become an incorporated body, and adopted a constitution. The ecclesiastical society was discontinued.

In December 1896 it was voted to adopt the free-pew and pledge systems,

Pastors.

REV. ELEAZER WILLIAMS, was settled in October, 1710, at the organization of the Church. He was a son of Rev. John Williams, of Deerfield, Mass., who was taken captive by the French and Indians, led by Major Hartel de Rowville, in the night of February 20, 1704. Two of his children and a servant were murdered at the door. His wife, Eunice, was killed in Greenfield two days afterwards. Mr. Williams and five children were driven prisoners to Canada. Eleazer was from home at the time pursuing his studies, and thus escaped the captivity. His was a successful ministry, 409 members were added to the Church during his pastorate. He died in September 1742, at the age of 54 years.

REV. RICHARD SALTER, D. D., the second pastor, was from Boston, Mass. He was settled in June, 1744. The early part of his ministry was greatly embarrassed by the conduct of a considerable number of the members of the Church breaking off from it, in what was deemed a disorderly way, and assembling in another part of the parish, denouncing the Church and pastor as dead hypocrites, and devoid of spiritual life. They were the separatists of that time, but organized their church under the name of Baptists. After those troublous times he enjoyed a peaceful and successful ministry, adding to the Church 347 members. He died in April, 1787, aged 66 years.

A brief record of the lives and services of both, Mr. Williams and Mr. Salter may still be read upon the ancient stones which mark their resting places in the old village cemetery. They were both godly men, loved by their people, and much respected in all the region of their labors.

The third pastor was REV. ELIJAH GRIDLEY. He was settled in April, 1789, and dismissed in July, 1796. There is no record of the members, if any, received during his ministry.

REV. JOHN SHERMAN, the fourth pastor, was installed in November, 1797. Mr. Sherman, some time after his settlement, became a Unitarian, and a majority of the members of the church and society, either adopted his doctrinal views, or sustained him in them as pastor of the church. A few of the members however, continued firm in the Orthodox faith, and saved it from being numbered among the Unitarian churches of the times. Mr. Sherman was dismissed in October, 1805, by an ecclesiastical council, it is said, quite unexpectedly to either party in the church. He was recalled by a majority of the church and society, but did not accept the invitation. Through his influence, and for the purpose of avoiding a trial by the Windham County Consociation, it is said, the church adopted the Presbyterian form of government. Seven elders were elected and ordained. That form of government was continued several years, but the church is now thoroughly Congregational. 105 members were added during Mr. Sherman's pastorate. He was a man of culture, an attractive preacher, and affable manners, and thus exerted a strong influence over the people.

REV. SAMUEL P. WILLIAMS, the fifth pastor, was installed January, 1807, and dismissed September, 1817. Mr. Williams labored under much embarrassment from the division in the church, introduced by his predecessor. After about eight years of conflict, he succeeded in healing the divisions, and the Unitarian element seems to have been quite thoroughly rooted out. He added 79 members. Mr. Williams died in the pastorate of the 1st Presbyterian Church, Newburyport, Mass., December 23, 1826.

REV. ANSON S. ATWOOD, the sixth pastor, was a native of Woodbury, Conn., and was settled September, 1819, and was dismissed in May, 1862, after a pastorate of 42 years and 7 months, two months less only than the pastorate of Dr. Salter, the second pastor. 402 members were added during his ministry. He died in East Hartford, July 22, 1866. Intellectually and religiously he was a strong man, and the influence of his ministry still lives in the church.

REV. J. W. SALTER, supplied the pulpit about a year after the dismissal of Mr. Atwood.

REV. CHARLES L. AYER, the seventh pastor, was installed in November, 1863, and dismissed in June, 1868; 46 were added to the church while he was pastor.

REV. K. B. GLIDDEN, the present acting pastor, [1875], commenced his labors Jan. 1, 1869; 54 members have been added since.

The first church manual, of which the present is a revision, was compiled and printed during Mr. Glidden's pastorate.

Mr. Glidden was the first of the pastors of the church not installed. His resignation was accepted by the church, Sept. 12, 1890. As a man and minister he was beloved and respected. He removed to Enfield, Conn., where, in March, 1892, he passed from this life. From frequent references to him made by the present people of the church, it may well be said "He being dead, yet speaketh." From the records it appears that the total number added to the church during Mr. Glidden's pastorate was 142.

REV. FINIS E. DELZELL was the next pastor and began his labors March 21, 1891. His pastorate closed, in June, 1894. Ten were added to the church. Mr. Delzell went to North Lyme, Conn., and at present is in East Brentwood, Mass. In the minutes relative to his resignation we read, "While among us he has exhibited a high standard of Christian living and has labored earnestly for the good of the people."

REV. CHARLES L. AYER, the former pastor, served as supply from Aug. 21, 1894 to Apr. 17, 1895.

The pastorate of REV. CLARENCE PIKE began Sept. 15, 1895, and closed May 5, 1907. 21 members were added to the church. In accepting his resignation the church expressed warm regard for Mr. Pike as preacher, pastor, scholar, and an "honest man."

REV. WALTER E. LANPHEAR, the present pastor, supplied the church during June, 1907; and accepted a call according to which his pastorate began July 1. From that date, and up to Sept. 4, 1910, 33 members have been added.

Church Buildings.

In October, 1706, "the town did engage to build a meeting house, twenty-four feet square, and fourteen feet between joints " Subsequently it was voted to add five feet to the length. Although there are records of meetings being held in this house before the organization of the church, it was not lathed and plastered 'till 1714, and the pews were not put in 'till the next year. It stood west of the present conference room and school house, and near where the old pound is now located. It was used as a house of worship until 1754, when it was abandoned, and, it is said, given to Rev. Richard Salter, who used the old material in the construction of a dwelling house which stood on the plains, and known by persons now living, as the Bibbins house.

In October, 1751, the society voted to build a new meeting house, which was about ten years in the process of erection and finishing. In 1754, there was a vote of the society to remove the pulpit and pews from the old house to the new, and it seems to have been used as a house of worship after that date. The new pews were not put in and assigned to the proprietors according to "rank and dignity" until 1761. It was located nearly on the site of the present church. Its dimensions were 64 by 44 feet, and 25 feet from floor to ceiling. In 1792 a steeple was erected on the north end, and a bell placed in the tower, which by a vote of the society was rung at noon and 9 o'clock, P. M., excepting Saturday evenings, when the time was fixed at 8 o'clock; this custom was continued until a recent date. In 1839 this house was turned end to the street and remodeled; the old square pews and high pulpit giving place to those of a more modern style. It was burned on the night of March 14, 1866, while a series of religious meetings were being held in it by the evangelist, Rev. J. D. Potter. The present comely and convenient church edifice was erected and finished the same year.

The "Orchestra" was built in 1881 as a gift from Mrs. L. C. Dewing.

The Lecture Room, Ladies' Parlor and Kitchen date from 1889, and occupy the space of the former "basement."

The bi-centennial year of the church (1910) is marked by extensive changes in the church property. The floor of the pulpit is slightly lowered and made continuous with the choir floor, and both are enlarged. Chiefly by the gift of one of Mansfield's daughter's the auditorium and other rooms are re-decorated and furnished with new carpets and cushions. Also an acetylene gas plant, largely the gift of one of our members, replaces the oil lamps. The parsonage is remodeled and equipped with modern conveniences. And the old shed between the house and barn is removed.

Ministers Raised Up.

The following list of ministers have been raised up and sent out from this church:

Hobert Estabrook, John Storrs, (the father of Richard Salter Storrs, minister of Longmeadow, Mass.,) from whom the line of ministers bearing that name have descended, Eleazer Storrs, Andrew Storrs, Oliver Arnold, Jonathan Hovey, Jonathan Hovey, 2d, Samuel Wood, Asa King, Richard Salter Storrs, Porter Storrs, John Storrs, David A. Grovsner, Mason Grovsner, John W. Salter, Thomas S. Salter, Elijah P. Barrows, John A. Albro, Asa Hinckley, Jonathan Fuller. David Bacon, father of Leonard Bacon, D. D., was also a member of this church before he went as a missionary to New Connecticut. Edward P. Armstrong was born and reared here. Edward P. Ayer, son of the pastor C. L. Ayer, spent his early boyhood days here.

Membership and Baptisms.

The whole membership of the church from its organization to the present time, A. D., 1875 is, as nearly as can be ascertained from the records, 1425.

The whole number of baptisms, 2450, (1875.) Of these, about 200 only were adults, and 2250 were infants or young children. A large number of household baptisms are recorded. In several instances as many as six or seven children of the same family were baptised at the same date. When the parents united with the church they consecrated their children to God. The ordinance of Infant Baptism was so universal in the church, that perhaps not more than 75 adults were baptised during the pastorates of both Messrs. Williams and Salter, covering a period of 75 years.

Confessions of Faith.

At the time of its organization the church adopted a Confession of Faith and a Covenant. In 1798 these "could not be found," so that new articles were adopted. Of these articles, the Confession of Faith and the Covenant printed in this manual in 1875, for the use of the church, are, "substantially," copies; and the Covenant is continued in this edition as the one still to be used by the church. The original articles seem finally to have been found. The original copy of the Confession of Faith is in the possession of the church, and "A True Copy of Original Covenant," attested by Richard Salter, in 1746 appears in the old records.

In revising the manual, it has seemed best to the church to adopt as a confession of faith "The Statement of Doctrine Presented in 1883 by the National Council Commission" and authorized by a committee of the Council in 1895.

Original Confession of Faith.

"We believe with our hearts and confess with our mouths;"

1. Concerning God, that there is one only true God in three persons, the Father, Son, and Holy Ghost, each of them

God, all of them One, and the same Infinite and Eternal God, most wise, holy, just, merciful and blessed forever.

2. Concerning the works of God, that this God is the maker and governor of all things, according to the council of his own will; and that God made man in his own image, in knowledge, righteousness, and blessedness.

3. Concerning the fall of man, that Adam by transgressing the command of God, fell from God and brought himself and posterity into a state of sin and death, and under the wrath and curse of God, which we do believe to be our own condition by nature as well as others.

4. Concerning Jesus Christ, that he is the Eternal Son of God whom God sent into the world, who for our sakes became man that he might redeem and save us by his obedience unto death, and that he arose from the dead and ascended into heaven and sitteth at the right hand of the Father whence He shall come to judge the world.

5. Concerning the Holy Ghost, that God, the Holy Ghost hath fully revealed the doctrine of Christ and will of God in the Old and New Testaments, which are the Word of God, a perfect and perpetual rule of our faith and obedience.

6. Concerning the benefits we have by Christ, that the same Spirit by working faith in God's elect, applieth unto them Christ with all his benefits of justification and sanctification unto salvation in the use of these ordinances which God hath appointed in his written word, and therefore ought to be observed by his people until the coming of Christ. God applies the Redemption of Christ by working faith in us, and thereby uniting us to Christ in our Effectual Calling. (Here follows definitions of Effectual Calling, Justification, Adoption, Sanctification, etc.)

God hath appointed Pastors and Teachers in his Church to dispense his ordinances to his people. They are diligently to preach the Word of God, and administer the sacrament of the New Testament. A sacrament is an holy ordinance instituted by Christ, wherein Christ and his benefits are regenerated, sealed, and applied to believers. The sacraments of the New Testament are two, viz.: Baptism, which is to be administered to visible believers and their seed; and the Lord's Supper, which is to be administered to such visible saints as are free from scandal and able to examine themselves and discern the Lord's body; and such adult persons ought to be admitted into church fellowship with us, who, besides a profession of the doctrine of faith, do either make a relation of the work of grace or bring testimonials of their reputed piety, or do manifest the same by their lives and conversation; either of these ways shall be satisfactory.

Original Covenant.

Since it hath pleased God of his infinite goodness to manifest himself willing to take unworthy sinners near himself, even into a covenant relation, and to an interest in him, and become a God to them and avouch them to be his people, and accordingly to command and encourage them to give up themselves and their children also unto him; we do therefore this day in the presence of God, his holy angels, and this assembly, avouch the Lord Jehovah, the true and living God; even God the Father, the Son and the Holy Ghost to be our God. We do give up ourselves and ours also unto him, to be his subjects and servants; promising through grace and strength from Christ, without which we can do nothing, to walk in professed subjection to him as our only Lord and Lawgiver; yeilding ourselves obedient to his blessed will, according to the discoveries he has made, and that we will seek him in all his holy ordinances according to the rules of the gospel; submitting to the goverment of Christ in his church, and particularly in this place, and that we will endeavor to walk ever with all brotherly love and watchfulness to the edifying of ourselves and others, in faith and love to his praise.

All of which we promise to perform, the Lord helping us, through his grace in Jesus Christ.

A true copy attested by Rev. Richard Salter.

Confession of Faith.

While this church recognizes that consistent Christian living is the real test of worthiness for church membership, that absolute uniformity of belief is impracticable and that the children of God should be free in their search after the truth, it also recognizes the importance of an intelligent belief in the fundamentals of the Christian faith, and it presents to those who seek its fellowship the following articles as a general setting-forth of those things commonly believed by us and by other churches of our order.

1. We believe in one God, the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth, and of all thing visible and invisible;

And in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord, who is of one substance with the Father; by whom all things were made.

And in the Holy Spirit the Lord and giver of life, who is sent from the Father and Son, and who together with the Father and Son is worshipped and glorified.

2. We believe that the Providence of God, by which he executes his eternal purposes in the government of the world, is in and over all events; yet so that the freedom and responsibility of man are not impaired, and sin is the act of the creature alone.

3. We believe that man was made in the image of God, that he might know, love, and obey God, and enjoy him forever; that our first parents by disobedience fell under the righteous condemnation of God; and that all men are so alienated from God; that there is no salvation from the guilt and power of sin except through God's redeeming grace.

4. We believe that God would have all men return to him; that to this end he has made himself known, not only through the works of nature, the course of his providence and the consciences of men, but also through supernatural revelations made especially to a chosen people, and above all, when the fullness of time was come, through Jesus Christ his Son.

5. We believe that the Scriptures of the Old and New Testaments are the record of God's revelations of himself in the work of redemption; that they were written by men under the special guidance of the Holy Spirit; that they are able to make wise unto salvation; and that they constitute the authoritative standard by which religious teaching and human conduct are to be regulated and judged.

6. We believe that the love of God to sinful men has found its highest expression in the redemptive work of his son; who became man, uniting his divine nature with our human nature in one person; who was tempted like other men, yet without sin; who by his humiliation, his holy obedience, his sufferings, his death on the cross, and his resurrection, became a perfect Redeemer; whose sacrifice of himself for the sins of the world declares the righteousness of God and is the sole and sufficient ground of forgiveness and of reconciliation with him.

7. We believe that Jesus Christ, after he had risen from the dead, ascended into heaven, where, as the one Mediator between God and man, he carries forward his work of saving men; that he sends the Holy Spirit to convict them of sin, and to lead them to repentance and faith; and that those who through renewing grace turn to righteousness and trust in Jesus Christ as their Redeemer receive for his sake the forgiveness of their sins, and are made the children of God.

8. We believe that those who are thus regenerated and justified grow in sanctified character through fellowship with Christ, the indwelling of the Holy Spirit, and obedience to the truth; that a holy life is the fruit and evidence of saving faith; and that the believer's hope of continuance in such a life is in the preserving grace of God.

9. We believe that Jesus Christ came to establish among men the kingdom of God, the reign of truth and love, righteousness and peace; that to Jesus Christ the Head of his kingdom, Christians are directly responsible in faith and conduct; and that to him all have immediate access without mediatorial or priestly intervention.

10. We believe that the Church of Christ, invisible and spiritual, comprises all true believers, whose duty it is to associate themselves in churches, for the maintenance of worship or the promotion of spiritual growth and fellowship, and for the conversion of men; that these churches, under the guidance of the Holy Scriptures and in fellowship with one another, may determine—each for itself—their organization, statements of belief, and forms of worship; may appoint and set apart their own ministers, and should co-operate in the work which Christ has committed to them for the furtherance of the gospel throughout the world.

11. We believe in the observance of the Lord's Day as a day of holy rest and worship; in the ministry of the Word; and in the two Sacraments which Christ has appointed for his Church; Baptism to be administered to believers and their children as the sign of cleansing from sin, of union to Christ, and of the impartation of the Holy Spirit; and the Lord's Supper as a symbol of his atoning death, a seal of its efficacy, and a means whereby he confirms and strengthens the spiritual union and communion of believers with himself.

12. We believe in the ultimate prevalence of the kingdom of Christ over all the earth; in the glorious appearing of the great God and our Saviour Jesus Christ; in the resurrection of the dead; and in the final judgment, the issues of which are everlasting punishment and everlasting life.

Covenant.

Since it hath pleased God in infinite mercy to take unworthy sinners into covenant relation with himself and his church; you do now in the presence of Almighty God, the searcher of all hearts, before his holy angels and this assembly of God's people, solemnly give up yourself to God the Father, God the Son, and God the Holy Spirit; avouching Him to be your God, your Saviour and Sanctifier; and renouncing every false and wicked way and choosing His faithful service, you promise by divine grace to live a holy life, in the denial of all ungodliness with every worldly lust.

And you promise to attend upon, and faithfully comply with, all the ordinances of the gospel as administered in this church—in particular to attend divine worship on the Sabbath, the holy communion, and other meetings of the church. You promise to walk in fellowship with the members of the church, treating them with tenderness, brotherly kindness and affection, and so far as in you lies, to watch over them for their spiritual good. You also promise to submit to the discipline of the church according to the rules of the gospel, and to conduct yourself in all things as become disciples of Christ.

Thus you solemnly covenant and promise.

[Baptism should here be administered to unbaptised persons.]

Reception by the Church.

(THE MEMBERS WILL ARISE.)

We, the minister and members of this Church of Christ, do now receive you into covenant, communion and fellowship, and signify that you are members with us in regular standing, and are entitled to all the privileges and ordinances here enjoyed, and we promise to watch over you in brotherly love, and conduct ourselves toward you as becomes a brotherhood of believers in Christ.

And may you have grace to honor your profession, to imitate the pattern of your divine Lord and Master, to discharge the various duties of your station in life, to fill up your days with usefullness and finally may you receive the reward of the redeemed in glory, through our Lord Jesus Christ, Amen.

Constitution.

1. The name of this body shall be, the First Congregational Church of Mansfield Centre.

2. In polity this Church is Congregational, accepting the principle according to which, under the Great Head of the Church, each local church is self-governing and at the same time is voluntarily associated with other such churches, in Associations, Conferences and Councils, for giving and receiving advice in matters pertaining to its own, or the general, welfare.

The government of this Church is, therefore, vested in its members, excepting those who are not of legal age.

3. Members of this Church shall be such as are evidently seeking to live a Christian life, provided there be a profession of faith according to the custom of the church or a presentation of credentials from another recognized Church, and provided the candidacy of such persons is, on examination, favorably acted on by the standing committee and by the Church.

The names of candidates for admission on confession of faith should be presented to the church one week previous to the time for their reception.

Dismissal from membership shall, on a vote of the church, be granted by letter to any Church, provided the one requesting the letter be in regular standing.

Names may be dropped from the roll on the certified request of a member, or in case of habitual neglect of covenant relationship, or in case of such non-resident members as shall fail for five consecutive years to communicate with some officer of the church, as such; provided in all cases that faithful effort shall have been made to reclaim the individual, and provided that, in the last named case, the name shall, by the clerk, be restored to the roll on the request of the individual.

4. The officers of this church shall be, a Pastor, Three Deacons, a Clerk, Three Trustees, (one to be elected each year), a Treasurer, a Sunday-School Superintendent, members of the Standing Committee, the Presidents of the Christian Endeavor and Ladies' Societies, and of any other similiarly connected Societies.

The duties of the Pastor shall be such as ordinarily pertain to his office, and he shall act as moderator of the business meetings.

The deacons shall, with the pastor, have oversight of matters peculiar to an ecclesiastical organization, and one of them shall preside at business meetings in the absence of the pastor.

The clerk shall keep an accurate record of all formal transactions of the church, an accurate record of membership, and shall perform such other duties as are incidental to his office.

The trustees shall perform the duties peculiar to them as officers of a corporate body. They shall have charge of the property-interests of the church and of trust funds, including those of the cemetery, and special bills presented to the treasurer shall be subject to the endorsement of their chairman.

Also they shall co-operate with the standing committee in providing for the conduct of church work in absence of the pastor, and in securing a candidate for the pastorate.

The treasurer shall have charge of the raising of all funds for Church expenses, shall hold the same together with all other Church funds, and shall disburse them by vote of the Church or order of the trustees, as the case may be.

The other officers of the church shall perform such duties as naturally pertain to their respective offices.

5. The committees shall be, The Standing Committee, A Music Committee and such other as may be deemed desirable.

The standing committee shall consist of the pastor and deacons, together with five other members.

The duties of this committee shall be to look after the spiritual affairs of the church, especially in matters relating to admissions to the church and in matters of discipline.

The distribution of the beneficence of the church shall be under the direction of the standing committee.

This committee shall, with the co-operation of the trustees provide for the conduct of the church work in absence of a pastor and in securing candidates for the pastorate.

The duties of other committees shall be such as naturally pertain to them.

The incidence of specific duties, as prescribed for officers and committees, may at any time be changed by vote of the Church.

6. Meetings of the Church for public and social worship shall be held on the Lord's Day and during the week.

The annual business meeting may be held in January.

Special meetings may be called by the pastor or the standing committee, and shall be called by the clerk on the written request of seven adult members.

These meetings shall be announced from the pulpit on the Sabbath previous to the time of holding the same.

But ordinary business may be transacted at any regular meeting of the Church without such notice.

7. At the annual meeting there shall be reports from the officers of the Church, the election of committees and officers (excepting pastor and deacons and excepting the presidents of the various connected Societies, who shall be elected by their respective societies), and any other business that may properly come before such meeting.

A quorum for any business meeting shall be nine adult members.

8. The Sacrament of the Lord's Supper shall, when practicable, be observed on the first Lord's Day of each second month, beginning with January.

The rite of baptism may be administered to candidates for admission to the Church such as have not been baptized, and to children.

9. Amendments to this constitution may be made at any duly-called meeting of the church, on a three-fourths vote, provided exact notice of the nature of the amendment be given in the call of the meeting.

Suspension of any rule, excepting that concerning a quorum may be had for a single meeting by a unanimous vote.

10. On all points not covered by these articles the action of the body shall be in consistence with itself as a Christian Congregational Church.
