Articles of Faith and Covenant.

ARTICLE I.

This church shall be called the FIRST CHURCH OF CHRIST IN COLCHESTER.

ARTICLE II.

The church shall be regarded as duly organized when furnished with a symbol of Faith, in conformity with the fundamental doctrines of the Bible—a Covenant the object of which is not to create duty, but to furnish language in which to acknowledge obligations already existing—and with one Pastor and not less than two Deacons.

ARTICLE III.

The following Articles of Faith are regarded by this Church as a fair representation of the principal truths taught in the Bible.

Isa. 45:5
Psa. 90:2
Gen. 17:1
Lev. 19:2

We believe that there is only one true God, infinite in being, almighty in power and perfect in holiness; and that the mode of His existence is such as to justify and require the three-fold distinction of Father, Son and Holy Ghost; and that these are one, as well in essence as in counsel.

Mat. 28:19

Isa. 42:8

We believe that the Scriptures of the Old and 2 Tim. 3:16 New Testaments were given by inspiration of Psal. 19:7, 8 God, that they are profitable for doctrine, for Gal. 1:8, 9 correction, for reproof and for instruction in righteousness, and that they are our supreme and sufficient rule of doctrinal belief and religious practice.

We believe that God created man in his own
 Gen. 1:26, 27 image, upright and holy, but in consequence of Eccl. 7:29 the apostacy of Adam, all men are now born
 Rom. 5:12 destitute of holiness and are by nature averse
 John 3:19 to the law, character and government of God.

We believe that without an atonement it

 Heb. 9:22 government of a holy God, to forgive the
 Lev. 17:11 transgressors of the divine law, and that Jesus

 1 Tim. 2:6 sufficient atonement so that now God can be
 Rom. 3:24, 25, 26 just and the justifier of all those who believe in Jesus.

We believe that notwithstanding the moral corruption of our race, all men are free and ac-

 ing the offer of eternal life and the depravity

We believe that those who cordially embrace
 John 10:27, 28, 29 Christ will be kept by the power of God through
 1 Pet. 1:5 faith unto salvation, and that men will be saved
 John 6:24 not by works of righteousness which they have 2 Thes. 2:13 done, but according to the distinguishing
 Eph. 2:8, 9 mercy of God through sanctification of the Spirit and belief of the truth.

John 5:28,29
1 Cor. 15:
20-22

We believe that there will be a general resurrection both of the just and of the unjust.

2 Cor. 5:10

We believe that there will be a general judgment at which Christ will preside, and when the righteous will be received into life eternal and the wicked go away into everlasting punishment.

Matt. 25:46

ment.

Matt. 28:19
1 Cor. 11:
24, 25, 26

We believe that the Sacraments of the New Testament are Baptism and the Lord's Supper, and that they are divinely appointed.

[Form of Admission into the Church.]

Confession of Faith.

What shall I render unto the Lord for all his benefits toward me? I will take the cup of salvation and call upon the name of the Lord. I will pay my vows unto the Lord now in the presence of all his people.

Whosoever, therefore, shall confess me before men him will I confess also before my Father who is in heaven. But whosoever shall deny me before men him will I also deny before my Father who is in heaven.

For with the heart man believeth unto righteousness and with the mouth confession is made unto salvation.

My Dear Friends:—Moved as we trust by a sense of your obligation to your Heavenly Father, after much prayerful consideration and with deep searchings of heart, you desire to confess openly your faith in the Lord Jesus Christ and to enjoy the privileges of the Covenant with His people in this church.

Accepting, according to the measure of your understanding of it, the system of Christian truth held by the churches of our faith and order and by this church into whose fellowship you now enter, you join with ancient saints, with the church throughout the world, and with us your fellow-believers in humbly and heartily confessing your faith in the Gospel as expressed in the following creed.

I believe in God, the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth, and in Jesus Christ, His only Son, our Lord; who was conceived by the Holy Ghost, born of the Virgin Mary; suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead and buried; the third day He rose from the dead; He ascended into heaven and sitteth at the right hand of God, the Father Almighty, from thence He shall come to judge the quick and the dead. I believe in the Holy Ghost; the holy catholic church; the communion of saints; the forgiveness of sins; the resurrection of the body; and the life everlasting, Amen.

Do you now in the presence of God and His people accept this confession as expressing the substance of your Christian faith?

[To those who were baptized in infancy.]

Do you who were baptized in childhood now accept the baptism you then received as a sign of your present faith in Christ and the seal of your covenant with God?

[To others baptism will be administered.]

Covenant.

You now give your assent to the covenant adopted by this church.

Convinced of our guilt and professing unfeigned repentance for our sins and a humble reliance on Jesus Christ for pardon and eternal life, we do now in the presence of God and this assembly give ourselves to God the Father, the Son and the Holy Ghost and declare the Lord Jehovah to be the supreme object of our affection and our chosen portion forever. We cordially acknowledge the Lord Jesus Christ in all His mediatorial offices and as our only Saviour and final Judge, and the Holy Spirit as our Sanctifier, Comforter and Guide. We consecrate all our powers and faculties to our Redeemer and promise, through the assistance of His grace, to receive in love the pure doctrines and precepts of the Gospel, to contribute our proportion for the support of public worship, to attend upon the ordinances of the Gospel and to adorn our high and holy vocation by a life of piety towards God and benevolence towards our fellow men. We do also cordially take our stand in this as a church of Christ engaging to submit to its discipline, so far as that conforms to the Gospel, to strive for its peace, edification and purity, to watch over its members in Christian love, to sanctify the Lord's day, to attend the public worship of the Sanctuary and, so far as we are able, the stated and occasional meetings of the church, to encourage family religion by precept and example, to live soberly, righteously and godly in the world, and to perform all duties by which God may be glorified and the dominion of the Son of God extended and established among men.

Thus you Covenant with this church.

[To those who unite by letter.]

Beloved in the Lord; you have brought us a letter of commendation from a church of Christ that you may be received into our fellowship and communion. In coming we trust you consecrate anew to Christ, all that you call your own and heartily accept the doctrines of our confession, while you agree to aid in supporting the ordinances of the Gospel, as administered here, in maintaining the discipline of the church and also to attend, as you are able, its stated meetings for worship; to labor for its upbuilding and to seek the salvation of those for whom Christ died.

Thus you Covenant with this church.

The Welcome of the Church.

Most heartily then do we, as a church of Christ, welcome you to its communion and privileges. We recognize you as one with us in the Lord.

We invite you to share in the work, the trials, the sorrows and the joys of this family of Christ.

We pledge to you our sympathies and an interest in our prayers.

We desire that there may be mutual watchfulness and friendly counsel, so that we may grow together in the knowledge and the love of God, to the praise and glory of His grace.

The Lord bless you and keep you ; the Lord make His face to shine upon you and be gracious unto you. The Lord lift up His countenance upon you and give you peace ; make you perfect in every good thing to do His will, working in us that which is well pleasing in His sight, through Jesus Christ, to whom be glory for ever and ever. Amen.

The Deacons as a committee of the church are expected at any preparatory service to report the name of any member who has been a non-resident five years or more and without sufficient reason has failed to take a letter; also, of any resident member who, by protracted and unreasonable neglect of the communion or of public worship, or on account of other disorderly or unchristian conduct is living in disregard of the Covenant with this Church, and who neglects to heed fraternal counsel and admonition. When the church accepts and approves such report the names will be placed upon the absentee list from which, however, they may be removed by vote of the church when satisfactory confession or explanation has been made.

XVII.

Any article of the Constitution except the second may be altered, amended or rescinded by a majority of the members present, provided it is not done at the same meeting in which it was proposed.
