

The Marriage Pretty 'tween John & Betty.

Sung by M^r. Green at Sadlers Wells.

2

The Marrying done,
We ev'ry one
Saluted Betty;
She look'd so neat,
And kiss'd so sweet,
'Twas vastly pretty.

3

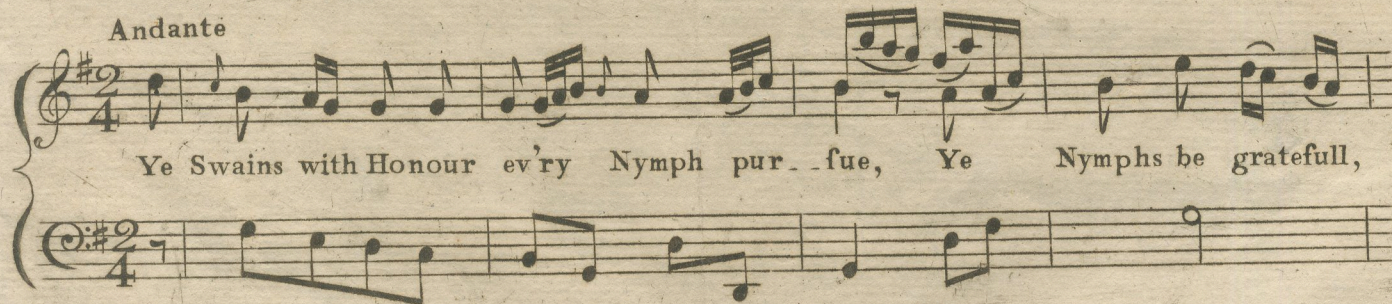

Birds as we went,
Along thro' Kent,
Joy'd me and Betty;
That Charms of that,
And I know what
'Twas vastly pretty.

4

The Jokes of wed,
And going to Bed,
From all were witty;
But I know best,
And do protest,
'Twas vastly pretty.

5

Now Night and Day,
My time away
Glides sweet with Betty;
In her I find
What Heav'n design'd,
She's good and Pretty.

to your Swains be true, fuch were the Steps I took and Betty too fuch were the Steps I took and Bet-ty too: Ye Swains with Honour ev'ry Nymph pur-sue, Ye Nymphs be gratefull, to your Swains be true, fuch were the Steps I took and Bet-ty too, fuch were the Steps I took and Bet-ty too, fuch were the Steps I took and Bet-ty too. Sym for