

offering goods guaranteed to be so camouflaged that neutrals could sell them to anti-Germans as their own manufacture and at cut prices.

German agents were in Spain, guaranteeing delivery within six months at cut prices, of any goods, whether previously sold by Germany or not.

German agents were waiting by the thousands in Switzerland for word to begin the invasion of Allied countries.

Thus even before the old war ended the enemy began the War-After-the-War. While the Allies have been almost in panic over the specter of Bolshevism in Germany the German trader has been attacking Allied trade.

In this new war they have struck not haphazardly, but with deep preparation. They have a well-drawn plan of campaign inspired by Teuton cunning and treachery. They have intact a world machine for aggression and propaganda. They have an industrial equipment which is actually stronger than before the war.

Has New Alliance Against the World

The alignment is of Germany, with such of Russia and Southeastern Europe as she and her Bolshevik friends and hirelings can control against the world.

The purpose is to win for Germany, by commercial, industrial and economic aggression, the world supremacy that she could not win by arms, and incidentally to make the nations that defeated her pay the indemnities she owes the world.

The strategy is to place comparatively small funds in positions of power in the business life of other nations, and from this leverage to reap further power and enormous profits.

The tactics are the same that have shocked and revolted the world for the last five years—broken faith, deceit, propaganda, espionage, every kind of dishonesty and indecency, combined with such scientific organization as will throw the whole power of the entire German world against any weak spot that her leaders may detect, and such diplomacy as will prevent the world from rallying adequate force at that spot to resist her.

Deadly Weapons Under Camouflage

The menace is no more a nightmare than the fear of her coming armed assault of the world, the fear that was laughed down in 1913, was a night-
