

HISTORY NEWSLETTER

Phi Alpha Theta is planning an initiation of new members April 13, 1975 (note the date has been changed since the last publication of Clio). If interested, please contact Dr. John Leopold of the History Department or Alison Roth, box # 1083.

A regional conference of Phi Alpha Theta will be held at Wesconn on Staurday, April 5th. Merle Miller will speak on "Harry Truman: Historian and President."

The next issue of Clio will examine "Jobs for the History Major." Please contact Kathy Hanlon, box # 524 if interested in contributing. The deadline for submitted articles is April 5th.

Phi Alpha Theta and the History Club are planning a Medieval Banquet in April. We need students to help with costumes, entertainment, and food planning. Look for notices on the History Bulletin Board for meetings.

The History Society and Phi Alpha Theta will sponsor the showing of "The Lion In Winter" on April 9th at 2:00 P.M. in Hartford Lounge and at 7:00 P.M. in Higgins Hall.

The History Society will sponsor a bus to museums in New York City. Anyone interested see Dr. John Leopold for more information.

The History Society financed the building of a sign to mark the site of Charles Ives' home. The sign was given to the Scott Fantom Museum, and will be placed in front of the Ives' home soon.

The members of the History Society would like to thank Dr. Ellen Rosenberg and Max Gunther for a successful sandwich seminar. The two spoke on "A Celebration of Maleness," and their presentation was well-received.

